Scenic Group Rewards Top Travel Advisors and Agencies
at Second Annual Night of the Stars in Miami

Awards ceremony held at Miami's Frost Museum of Science in full view of Scenic Eclipse II

Hollywood, FL (October 2023) – Scenic Group USA honored the top-producing Scenic Group’s travel advisor partners and agencies at its second annual Night of the Stars awards ceremony on Saturday, Oct 21 at Miami’s renowned Frost Museum of Science. Following a full day of ship tours, guests and award winners were treated to a beautiful Miami evening at the museum where they could watch the line’s newest ultra-luxury Discovery Yacht, Scenic Eclipse II, take a leisurely turn in Biscayne Bay as one of its two helicopters circled overhead and a tug sailed alongside, spraying its water canon in celebration.

The aptly named Night of the Stars is a long-standing tradition for Scenic Group, having originated in the Australian market many years ago, and adopted in the USA last year. The event recognizes and celebrates the successes of Scenic Groups’ dedicated travel partners. Honored advisors mingled with Scenic and Emerald Cruises executives and others and enjoyed gourmet foods and drinks while in full view of Scenic Eclipse II.

Glen Moroney, founder and chairman of Scenic Group, addressed the gathering: “I am so impressed with the quality of travel advisors we have helping us promote our unique portfolio of river ships and ocean yachts – and so appreciative of all of those who are being recognized tonight. Being here at the Frost Museum and watching our newest yacht, Scenic Eclipse II, sail out of Miami with one of her two helicopters overhead is truly a sight to behold.”

Ken Muskat, managing director, Scenic Group USA/LATAM, added “We are looking to the US and Latin American markets to lead in global bookings and, with your help, we know we will reach our goals. We look forward to great things to come, and with a great increase in business from this market, we will grow and evolve toward our next generation of ultra-luxury yachts.”

Elizabeth Fettes, vice president of sales, Scenic Group USA, delivered a resounding endorsement of the “Partners in Travel” program which kicked off the celebration of our trusted travel advisors. “The evening was a celebration of our loyal travel advisors and their outstanding feats with us in 2023. It was no small task, given the extraordinary year we’ve had with all our travel collaborators and we wish we could bestow all our trusted travel partners with an award for their incredible work. We are excited for how we will finish the year and the success into 2024.”
